 - (b) provide in any such enactment for -
 - (i) the repeal, amendment or supplement of any proclamation, regulation, by-law or rule referred to in section 5(2), 8 (2), 11 (2), 32 (2) or 72 (2) of this Act, or the substitution, either with or without adjustments, of any such proclamation, regulation, by-law or rule;
 - (ii) the amendment or supplement of any law which contains any provision that has been repealed by this Act or in which appears a reference or an implied reference to any law or any provision that has been repealed by this Act or to any area that has been defined, determined or established by or under any such repealed law or provision, or the repeal of any such law;
 - (iii) the amendment or supplement of any other law, or the repeal of any such other law, so as to give effect to any repeal, amendment, supplement or substitution contemplated in subparagraph (i) or (ii); or

- (iv) the amendment of the Rural Areas Act (House of Representatives), 1987 (Act No. 9 of 1987), or any regulation made thereunder, or the repeal of the said Act or any such regulation.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 29 of Act 108/93]

- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by this section -

- (a) any amendment, supplement or repeal contemplated in subsection (1) (b) (ii) may be effected irrespective of whether the repeal of the law or provision referred to in that subsection has commenced or not; and

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 29 of Act 108/93]

- (b) any amendment or supplement of any law referred to in subsection (1) (b) (ii) or (iii) may, subject to such qualifications as the State President may think fit, provide for the extension or restriction of the application of any such law or any provision thereof.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 29 of Act 108/93]

- (3) The State President shall not exercise his powers under subsection (1) in respect of a self-governing territory referred to in the Self-governing Territories Constitution Act, 1971 (Act No. 21 of 1971), except after consultation with the government of such self-governing territory.

- (4) The provisions of this section shall lapse on 31 December 1994.

88. Tabling of list of proclamations

A list of proclamations issued by the State President under sections 12 and 87 shall be laid upon the Table of Parliament in the same manner as the list referred to in section 17 of the Interpretation Act, 1957 (Act No. 33 of 1957), and if Parliament by resolution disapproves of any such proclamation or any provision thereof, such proclamation or provision shall cease to be of force and effect, but without prejudice to the validity of anything done in terms of such proclamation or such provision before it so ceased to be of force and effect, or to any right or liability acquired or incurred in terms of such proclamation or such provision before it so ceased to be of force and effect.

“local authority” means -

- (a) any local authority as defined in section 1 (1) of the Black Local Authorities Act, 1982 (Act No. 102 of 1982);
- (b) any institution or body as referred to in section 84 (1) (f) of the Provincial Government Act, 1961 (Act No. 32 of 1961), excluding -
 - (i) any regional services council established under section 3 of the Regional Services Councils Act, 1985 (Act No. 109 of 1985);
 - (ii) any management body or any representative body as defined in section 1 of the last-mentioned Act; or
 - (iii) a joint services board established under section 4 of the KwaZulu and Natal Joint Services Act, 1990 (Act No. 84 of 1990);
- (c) any board of management or board as defined in section 1 of the Rural Areas Act (House of Representatives), 1987 (Act No. 9 of 1987); or
- (d) any local council established under section 2 of the Local Councils Act (House of Assembly), 1987 (Act No. 94 of 1987);

“neighbourhood” means -

- (a) an area comprising one or more general plans and in which the majority of the premises are residential premises; or
- (b) any area comprising at least 100 residential premises and which is defined for the purposes of this Chapter by means of cadastral boundaries as shown on the compilation maps of the Surveyor-General or on one or more diagrams;
[Para. (b) substituted by s. 27 of Act 134/92]

“neighbourhood committee” means any neighbourhood committee contemplated in section 98(1)(a) established under any by-law;

“nuisance”, in relation to any premises, means any deviation from the use for which the land concerned has been zoned or the use permitted under any town planning scheme, or any physical condition -

- (a) comprising a health or safety risk;

- (b) of decay that conflicts with the perceptible norms or standards in the neighbourhood concerned; or
- (c) which, measured against the norms or standards of the neighbourhood concerned, is offensive;

“owner”, in relation to any premises, means -

- (a) the owner as defined in section 102(1) of the Deeds Registries Act, 1937 (Act No. 47 of 1937), or in section 1 (1) of the Sectional Titles Act, 1986 (Act No. 95 of 1986); or
- (b) the holder of any land tenure right referred to in Schedule 1 to the Upgrading of Land Tenure Rights Act, 1991;

“premises” means -

- (a) any “erf” as defined in section 102(1) of the Deeds Registries Act, 1937, and includes any building or structure or any part thereof; or
- (b) any “section” as defined in section 1(1) of the Sectional Titles Act, 1986;

“residential premises” means any premises destined by law for habitation.

98. By-laws for residential areas

- (1) A majority of all the owners of residential premises in any neighbourhood may by agreement lodge draft by-laws in relation to any such neighbourhood with the local authority concerned regarding -
 - (a) the election and establishment by the owners of residential premises in any such neighbourhood of a neighbourhood committee of such owners comprising not more than six members;
 - (b) overcrowding of residential premises, including norms or standards for the determination of overcrowding, and the prohibition, prevention, combating and termination of any overcrowding inconsistent with such norms or standards;
 - (c) the use for habitation of premises which are unfit for that purposes, including norms or standards for the determination of such fitness, and the prohibition, prevention, combating and termination of any such use that is inconsistent with such norms or standards;
 - (d) the maintenance of residential premises in a clean and hygienic condition;

- (e) the repair, cleaning up or removal of nuisances on premises by the owner thereof;
 - (f) the repair and maintenance of buildings, structures, machinery, accessories, fences and open spaces on or in any residential premises; and
 - (g) the orderly use of amenities established and maintained for the residents of the neighbourhood concerned, the determination of norms or standards in respect of any such use and the combating and prohibition of any offensive, indecent, unhygienic or dangerous conduct in the use of such amenities.
- (2) Upon receipt of any draft by-laws contemplated in subsection (1) the local authority concerned shall, if it is of the opinion that such draft by-laws comply with subsection (1), cause such by-laws to be promulgated in the Official Gazette in respect of any such neighbourhood.
- (3) (a) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of any by-law shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding R1 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one month or to both such fine and such imprisonment.
- (b) No accused shall be convicted of any offence referred to in paragraph (a) unless the court is satisfied that a notice referred to in section 100(1) has been served on him and that he has failed to comply with any instruction contained therein within the determined period.

99. Validity of by-laws

- (1) Any by-law which discriminates on the ground of race, colour or religion or is grossly unfair shall be of no force and effect.
- (2) Any by-law made by the local authority concerned under any other law and which is inconsistent with any by-law made under this Chapter shall be of no force and effect in relation to the neighbourhood concerned.

100. Powers of neighbourhood committee

- (1) A neighbourhood committee may, if it is of the opinion that any provision of any by-law is being contravened or that there is a failure to comply therewith in the neighbourhood concerned, cause a notice in writing to that effect to be served on the owner or occupier concerned in which he is instructed to rectify such contravention or failure within 14 days or such longer period as may be determined by the neighbourhood committee.

- (2) If the owner or occupier concerned fails to comply with any notice referred to in subsection (1) within the determined period, a member of the neighbourhood committee or any owner or occupier of any premises in the neighbourhood concerned who feels aggrieved thereby, may act as complainant in any criminal proceedings instituted against such owner or occupier.

101. Serving of notice

Any written notice under section 100(1) to any owner or occupier concerned shall be served on him -

- (a) by delivering a copy thereof to him;
- (b) by leaving such copy at his usual or last known place of residence or business; or
- (c) by sending such copy to him by post to his usual or last known place of residence or business.

102. Interdict

- (1) Any person who feels aggrieved by any contravention of or any failure to comply with any provision of any by-law, shall have the legal capacity to apply to any competent court of law for a peremptory or prohibitory interdict in connection with the contravention of or failure to comply with such provision of such by-law.
- (2) Any interdict referred to in subsection (1) may, in addition to being applied for against the occupier of any premises, also be applied for against any absent owner thereof.
- (3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, any court established under section 2(1)(f) of the Magistrates' Courts Act, 1944 (Act No. 32 of 1944), shall, for the purposes of the provisions of subsection (1), be deemed to be a competent court of law, and any such court shall have the jurisdiction to hear and allow or dismiss any application referred to in that subsection.

103. Application of this Chapter in self-governing territories

- (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 104, the provisions of this Chapter shall only apply in a self-governing territory as referred to in the Self-governing Territories Constitution Act, 1971 (Act No. 21 of 1971), if, after consultation with the government of any such self-governing territory, the State President by notice in the Gazette declares them to be applicable in any such territory, and the State President may, in order to give effect to any such application, so amend provisions of this Chapter.

- (2) In applying this Chapter in any self-governing territory as referred to in subsection (1), a reference to “local authority” shall be construed as a reference to any body of persons which the State President may after consultation with the government of the self-governing territory concerned by proclamation in the Gazette declare to be a local authority for that purpose.

CHAPTER VIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

104. Application of Act

This Act shall also apply in the self-governing territories referred to in the Self-governing Territories Constitution Act, 1971 (Act No. 21 of 1971).

105. Construction of laws of self-governing territories

No provision in any law in force in a self-governing territory or any portion thereof immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be so construed as imposing any prohibition or placing any restriction in respect of the alienation, grant or transfer of land or any right to land to, or the possession, occupation or use of land or any right to land by, any person of a particular population or ethnic group or who is not of a particular population or ethnic group.

[S. 105 substituted by s. 20 of Act 204/93]

106. Interpretation of references in laws to certain areas

Unless clearly inappropriate, any reference or implied reference in a law to an area defined, determined or established by or under a law or a provision of a law repealed by this Act, shall be construed to be a reference or an implied reference to that area as it was defined, determined or established immediately prior to the repeal of the last-mentioned law and also to any other area which the Minister of Planning, Provincial Affairs and National Housing may by notice in the Gazette declare as an additional area for the purposes of such first-mentioned law.

107. Act 28 of 1966 and Act 43 of 1983

The State President may, by proclamation in the Gazette, designate the Minister and the Department responsible for the administration of the Agricultural Credit Act, 1966 (Act No. 28 of 1966), and the Conservation of Agricultural Resources Act, 1983 (Act No. 43 of 1983), and upon such assignment the provisions of section 10(5) of the Interpretation Act, 1957 (Act No. 33 of 1957), shall apply mutatis mutandis.

108. Short title and commencement

This Act shall be called the Abolition of Racially Based Land Measures Act, 1991, and shall come into operation on 30 June 1991.
